

O&R Bring Your Own Thermostat (BYOT) Program Terms and Conditions

Welcome to the BYOT Program!

About the Program. Participants whose applications to participate in the Program are accepted by ecobee, Inc. ("ecobee") and who fully comply with these official terms and conditions ("Terms") ("Participants", "Customer" or "you") will receive a reward from Orange & Rockland Utilities, Inc. ("O&R" or "Utility") in the form of a $85 one-time enrollment incentive for each eligible thermostat ("Reward").

Why should I participate in the Program? ecobee provides and allows you to participate in O&R's summer demand response program (the "Program" or "Direct Load Control Program"). Participants who participate in the Program and fully comply with these Terms will receive the Reward described in these Terms. Participants will also help reduce the risk of blackouts and brownouts occurring in their electricity service areas.
